

What do we offer?

The Support Group offers the opportunity to meet others who have been through similar experiences.

It offers:

- Time to talk to others and share experiences in a relaxed atmosphere
- An opportunity to ask questions and learn more about brain tumour issues
- Information on support for you and your family
- The chance to keep up to date on the latest research and developments
- The possibility of being matched up with an individual to talk to – Befriending Scheme

Group day out at Ragley Hall

Who is it for?

Primarily the Group is for anyone with any type of brain tumour, benign or cancerous, or any similar condition, no matter where they live.

We also welcome:

- Relatives
- Carers
- Families
- Professionals
- Organisations who can offer help and support in any way

Support group meetings are not for everyone, but you can still access our services by telephone, email, or visit our web site. See contact details.
